excellence, integrity, collaboration and partnership, lifelong learning, responsiveness, innovation, communication, and global reach.

We hire the best. Varied views and experiences make us strong. We look for candidates with both academic and people skills who work well in teams, honor their commitments, innovate in a rapidly changing world, and believe in opportunity for all. Working for Florida Cooperative Extension will allow you to make a positive impact in your community as you help shape future generations, growing your career while earning a competitive salary and excellent benefits.

The Opportunity

As an Extension Agent, you will work jointly for the University of Florida Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences (UF/IFAS) Extension and Flagler County, a growing area in east central Florida. We are looking for a positive youth development professional who is a self-starter, energetic, and team-oriented. The 4-H Youth Development Agent focuses on 1) volunteer development and 2) positive youth development through collaboration with 4-H volunteers, 4-H Extension colleagues, and Extension colleagues in the other Extension program areas.

What you will do:

- Work with UF/IFAS and Flagler County teams to identify needs, issues, and opportunities.
- Use traditional and innovative educational methods to teach target audiences new practices, procedures, techniques, and skills which will result in behavioral and or practice change.
- Design, implement, evaluate, and report on community-based educational programs focusing on volunteer and youth development.
- Deliver positive youth development programs through a variety of delivery modes including clubs, school enrichment, camps, and competitive events.
- Collaborate with all Extension program areas (Horticulture, Sea Grant, Family and Consumer Sciences, Agriculture and Natural Resources) and volunteers on educational efforts that will facilitate positive management practices with significant and locally relevant impact.
- Manage program components including program policies, enrollments, records, risk management, communication, and educational materials.
- Develop an advisory committee to assist with program design, identification of client needs and priority issues, analysis of county situations, and development of program budgets.
- Oversee and provide leadership for the Flagler County 4-H Association.
- Provide excellent customer service for the community through various modes of communication
- Develop and sustain partnerships with community agencies and leaders, businesses, county government, media, and the public.

- Seek, secure, and manage grants, contracts, and other funding and partnership opportunities to support the 4-H program.
- Develop and deliver age-appropriate subject matter education to 4-H youth and volunteers.
- Attend and contribute to professional meetings, in-service trainings, and actively seek out and attend professional development opportunities.
- Follow all Flagler County, UF, and IFAS Extension policies regarding Civil Rights, program development, and parity.
- Carry out other duties as outlined by the County Extension Director and the District Extension Director.

Further information:

UF/IFAS employs more than 2,000 faculty and staff statewide. We employ 375 Extension Agents and have an office in each of Florida's 67 counties. UF/IFAS Extension is a partnership between state, federal, and county governments with a mission to provide quality, relevant education, and research-based expertise to foster healthy people, a healthy environment, and a healthy economy. We attribute our success to a workforce that embraces the contributions of people of all backgrounds and ability levels. The Extension Agent will contribute to a community that provides space for innovation, creativity, collaboration, growth, and development for all. For more information on Florida 4-H visit: Florida 4-H Impact - Florida 4-H - University of Florida, Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences - UF/IFAS \(ufl.edu\)

Employment is contingent on the results of a national background check and drug screening.

In the event of an emergency, all Flagler County employees are considered essential personnel and may be required to perform alternate duties if applicable.

Candidates must have the ability to possess (or be able to obtain) a Florida driver's license, be able to work flexible hours, and have the willingness to occasionally work long and irregular hours including evenings, weekends, and overnight travel.

Candidates will be reviewed as applications are received, but please be aware that interviews might be scheduled at 4 to 6 weeks after the position closing date. Are you a good match? Apply today!
