disability is needed to apply for this position, please call 352-392-2477 or the Florida Relay System at 800-955-8771 (TDD) or visit Accessibility at UF .

The Opportunity

This full-time permanent status accruing 4-H Youth Development Extension Agent will work jointly for UF/IFAS Extension and Broward County. The successful candidate will lead through designing, implementing, and evaluating positive youth development programs for youth and adult volunteers. The 4-H agent's extension education program will be guided by an advisory committee that incorporates the various needs of the county's population. We are looking for candidates with academic and people skills who work well in teams, honor their commitments, and innovate in a rapidly changing world.

Duties and Responsibilities

This position will oversee all aspects of the Broward County 4-H Youth Development program. The agent must develop effective working relationships with adult volunteers, youth, families, and other community partners. Along with developing these working relationships, the extension agent will form and work closely with an advisory committee. The successful candidate will be innovative, creative, and adaptable to a dynamic work environment. The agent will be expected to work with other county extension faculty in the Southeast District, other 4-H agents, extension specialists, and University of Florida faculty across the state.

The successful candidate will:

- Develop, conduct, coordinate, evaluate, and report on educational programs for youth ages 5 to 18 and volunteers.
- Develop, train, sustain, and recognize an effective volunteer base.
- Develop a comprehensive volunteer management strategy to ensure program policies, enrollment, record keeping, risk management, and experiential learning procedures are updated and effective.
- Establish and maintain an effective and varied advisory committee to assist with extension program design, direction, and operation.
- Develop community partnerships and work as a team with local volunteers, organizations, agencies, and UF/IFAS colleagues to promote positive youth development.
- Obtain financial resources to support programs and manage all fiscal components of the 4-H program (e.g., policies, accounting records, risk, communication, and accountability).
- Target programs to reflect the area's population and unique educational needs using a variety of program marketing and delivery methods, including in-person, site visits, consultations, and deliberately focused virtual platforms such as webinars, videos, and social media.

- Produce creative, scholarly works and audience-friendly publications.
- Actively participate in professional associations.
- Write an annual plan of work and report of accomplishment.
- Assume other responsibilities that benefit the total county extension program as assigned by the County and District Extension Directors.

Further Information

The population of Broward County is estimated at more than 1.9 million new, permanent, and temporary residents. The County is bounded by Palm Beach County on the north, the Atlantic Ocean on the east, Miami-Dade County on the south, and Collier and Hendry Counties on the west. Broward residents enjoy the sub-tropical climate and ocean access. Broward County Extension is part of the Southeast Extension District, comprising twelve counties and the Seminole Tribe.

FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY: Extension is a partnership between state, federal, and county governments to provide scientific knowledge and expertise to the public. As such, all partners are involved in the supervision of the office and contribute to the salary and support resources. The primary goal of Extension is to disseminate the latest knowledge and applicable technologies in agriculture, human and natural resources, and the life sciences to sustain and enhance the quality of human life. The UF/IFAS mission is accomplished through extension faculty members, scientists, educators, administrative staff, and volunteers working cohesively throughout Florida's 67 counties.

Candidates will be reviewed as applications are received, but please be aware that interviews might not be scheduled until 4 to 6 weeks after the position closing date.

EXPECTED SALARY:

Commensurate with Education and Experience

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

- A bachelor's degree and a strong academic background in youth development, education, agricultural science, or a related field. We will accept applicants without a bachelor's degree if the degree will be earned by August 2024.
- Self-starting, proactive, and team-oriented with strong interpersonal, communication, organization, customer service, and leadership skills.
