The Rubenstein School of Environment and Natural Resources (RSENR) at the University of Vermont (UVM) seeks applicants for a full-time, 9-month, Endowed Associate or Full Professor who has a demonstrated commitment to promoting academic excellence in the field of sustainability science and policy, with an emphasis on energy systems. The successful candidate will be expected to advance interdisciplinary research and educational collaborations bridging programs in Sustainability, Ecology, and Policy (SEP), Environmental Sciences (ENSC), and Engineering. Scholars with expertise in decision analysis, data science, equity, law, and/or the evolution of institutions in the energy sector are especially encouraged to apply.

Applications must be submitted online at: <https://www.uvmjobs.com/postings/77170>. Review of applications will begin on January 8, 2025.

The University of Vermont is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer and welcomes applications from individuals who will contribute to UVM's Our Common Ground Values and commit to advancing diversity and inclusive excellence across all areas of the University.
